

Our Team

We have decades of experience working at all levels of the criminal legal system, a deep understanding of that system, and subject area expertise to help organizations move their important work forward.

Our Approach

RESEARCH-INFORMED

COLLABORATIVE

FOCUSED ON HUMAN DIGNITY

EQUITY-CENTERED

CEPP has partnered with stakeholders on projects in all 50 states and in hundreds of counties.

CEPP has trained thousands of judges, lawyers, community members, corrections staff, and other criminal legal professionals.

CEPP has an extensive library of resources and research across a range of topics.

Our Projects

Reimagine justice solutions

We bring innovative, creative, and effective solutions to reduce the use of incarceration through initiatives like Advancing Pretrial Policy & Research and Evidence-Based Decision Making.

Advance system change

We help systems make transformative, systemic change to advance more effective, equitable justice through initiatives like our Statewide Justice Reinvestment Initiative and the National Parole Resource Center.

Address unique needs

We help partners make systems more humane and respond to the distinct needs of unique populations through initiatives like the National Resource Center on Justice-Involved Women and the Center for Sex Offender Management.

Strengthen community well-being

We work with stakeholders to promote successful outcomes for people who are involved in the criminal legal system and their communities through initiatives like Transition from Prison to Community and Dosage Probation.
